ABOUT

Vanessa

I'm Vanessa, a passionate content creator and travel enthusiast from Germany.

I'm a communicative and motivated professional with a background as a trained chef. Having experienced the hospitality world from behind the scenes, I understand what it takes to create outstanding guest experiences.

I bring fresh ideas, creativity, and a passion for delivering the best for every customer.

Always eager to grow, I enjoy stepping outside my comfort zone to keep learning and improving.

A photograph of two women riding camels on a sandy beach. They are wearing traditional blue headscarves and sunglasses. The camels are decorated with colorful red and yellow patterned saddle pads. The ocean is visible in the background under a clear sky.

I have been traveling the world together with my husband for a long time. I'm open minded and have an eye for detail and for what people like.

Additionally, we come from two different cultures. This is a great strength, allowing to bring fresh, new perspectives that others might not think of.

I'm currently growing my online presence, and this offers a unique opportunity for you. Instead of a hefty bill for influencer or photographer, we can collaborate by exchanging valuable products that boosts your brand's visibility in a cost-effective way.

WHY

about AYmen

Aymen is also a professional chef trained in Germany, originally from Morocco, bringing a unique blend of cultures and perspectives to our work.

He plays a crucial role in my projects. He contributes to photography and videography, and perhaps most importantly, he is the one piloting the drones, capturing the breathtaking aerial shots that elevate our work.

Having him by my side gives me a sense of security while traveling as a woman, and his presence brings genuine joy, which naturally enhances the creativity and energy of our work.
